

Early Childhood Administrator Training

- Dealing with policies all the time.
- Dealing with delicate situations with families - tensions
- Understand the challenges and benefits of regulation
- Understand running small businesses
- Will never deal with anything more controversial than you have already as program leader
- Know what its like to come to work and never know what you will be doing at 2 PM!
- Have to be driven by something more than a paycheck to stick with it.

