

CHILD CARE & EARLY LEARNING HELP OUR STATE THRIVE

OHIO

Access to high quality early childhood education (ECE) boosts the well-being of children and helps parents get and keep a job. It's time for policymakers to build the supply and quality of child care and early learning by investing in early childhood education and educators working in centers, schools, and homes.

NAEYC AFFILIATE

Ohio Association for the Education of Young Children and Southwest Ohio Association for the Education of Young Children

Our State's Families Need Quality, Affordable Child Care and Early Learning

798,955

Number of children birth through 5 ⁽¹⁾

71%

Percentage of children with all available parents in the workforce ⁽²⁾

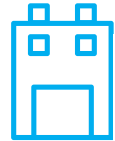

11%

Average percentage of family income spent on child care ⁽³⁾

58%

Percentage of child care programs reporting staffing shortages that limit the number of slots available for families ⁽⁴⁾

51%

Percentage of child care programs reporting they had to increase tuition to keep their doors open ⁽⁵⁾

39%

Percentage of people living in a child care desert ⁽⁶⁾

Our State's Children Receive Their Child Care and Early Learning Experiences in Many Places

569,061

Licensed capacity in centers and family child care homes ⁽¹⁾

18,000

Number of children in state funded PreK programs* ⁽²⁾

83%

Percentage of children receiving child care assistance who are served in child care centers ⁽³⁾

32,304

Number of children in Head Start and Early Head Start programs ⁽⁴⁾

10,426

Number of children served in NAEYC accredited early learning programs ⁽⁵⁾

15%

Percentage of children receiving child care assistance who are served in family child care homes ⁽⁶⁾

107

Number of NAEYC accredited early learning programs ⁽⁷⁾

National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC)

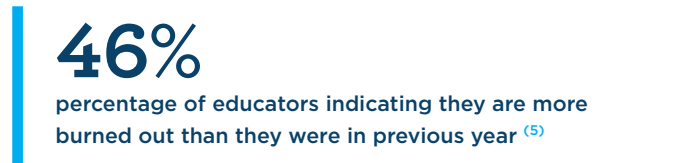

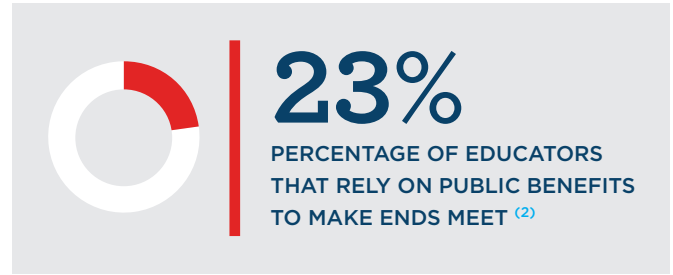

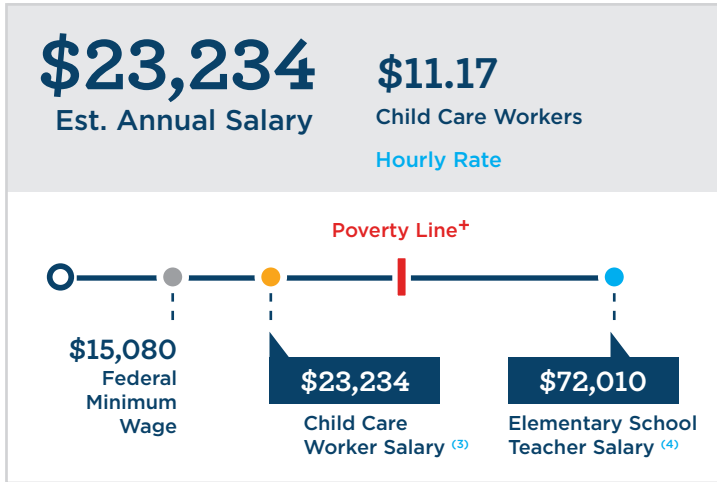

naeyc.org |   @naeyc

© 2025 by the National Association for the Education of Young Children.

naeyc[®]

Our State's Early Childhood Educators Need Support and Compensation

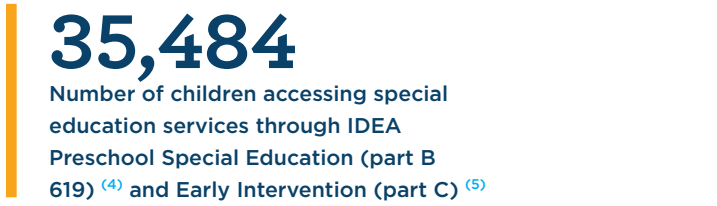

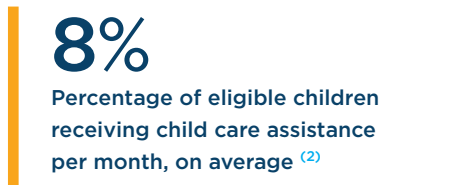

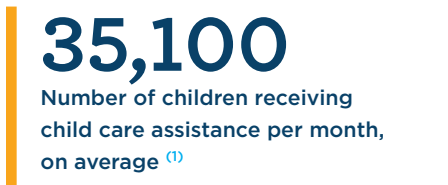

58,600 Number of educators working with children birth through 5 ⁽¹⁾

 Scholarships to support early childhood educators in accessing professional development, and earning credentials and degrees ⁽⁶⁾

“The program’s expenses have consistently increased and caused for increases in tuition, as well as alternate ways of meeting expenses (such as credit cards).”
- Family Child Care Owner/Operator

Federal Investments Support Access to Child Care and Early Learning and Increase the Well-Being of Children, Families, and Educators in Our State

 Currently receiving a Preschool Development Grant to improve our ECE system ⁽⁶⁾

Programs including CCDBG, Head Start, IDEA, CCAMPIS, CACFP, CHIP, TANF, SNAP, MIECHV, and Medicaid, as well as tax credits such as the Child Care and Dependent Tax Credit and the Child Tax Credit, provide critical investments to support the well-being of young children, their families, and the early childhood educators who support them.

Resources on Policy Solutions to Address the Child Care Crisis and Advance the Early Childhood Education Field

- NAEYC Federal Policy Agenda
- Compensation Means More Than Wages: Increasing Early Childhood Educators' Access to Benefits
- The Costs of Deregulating Child Care: Decreased Supply, Increased Turnover, and Compromised Safety

Scan QR code
for citations.

+2025 Federal Poverty Guideline for a family of four in the 48 contiguous states and the District of Columbia is $32,150 per year. The poverty guidelines are updated periodically in the Federal Register by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under the authority of 42 U.S.C. 9902(2).

National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC)

naeyc.org |   @naeyc

© 2025 by the National Association for the Education of Young Children.

naeyc[®]